

BOMBARDIER

SITE FACT SHEET

EAST HAM, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM

Key Information

Customer owned premises built in 1959.

Main Products and Contracts

- *ELECTROSTAR electric multiple units, full TSA contract for c2c (a train operating company owned by National Express).

Other Information

- Certified ISO 9001:2000 (Quality)
- Certified ISO 14001:1996 (Environmental Management System)
- Certified OHSAS 18001:1999 (Occupational Health & Safety Management)

Historical Milestones

1997 Contract for delivery of fleet of 357 Electrostars signed between ABB-Daimler Benz (commonly known under its brand name of ADTRANZ) and LTS Rail.

1999 DaimlerChrysler bought ABB's shares and became known as Daimler Chrysler Rail Systems and in this year the first phase of 46 trains was delivered.

2001 Bombardier acquired Daimler Chrysler Rail Systems

2002 Second phase of 28 trains was delivered.

Achievements

2005:

Golden Spanner Award for Maintenance Team of the Year (Rolling Stock) and Golden Spanner Award for Best Modern EMU at the Annual National Rail Awards

2006:

Golden Spanner Award for Maintenance Team of the Year (Rolling Stock) and Golden Spanner Award for Most Reliable Modern EMU at the Annual National Rail Awards

2007, 2008 & 2009:

Golden Spanner Award for Most Reliable New Generation EMU at the Annual National Rail Awards

2008:

Transport Team/Partnership of the Year at the London Transport Awards

Address

East Ham EMU Depot, Stevenage Road,
East Ham, London, E6 2AU, United Kingdom
Telephone: +44 0207 465 9187

<http://www.transportation.bombardier.com>

* Trademark(s) of Bombardier Inc. or its subsidiaries